Fontos tudnivalók

- Az utasításokat pontosan kell követni. Csak az utasításban megadott helyre beírt megoldás fogadható el.
- Mindig csak egy megoldást szabad beírni.
- A betűjelek legyenek jól olvashatóak, az esetleges javítások pedig egyértelműek.
- A megadott szószámot nem szabad túllépni. Az összevont alakok egy szónak számítanak (pl. "it's" egy szó, "it is" két szó).

Task 1

Read this interview with Jenifer Greer Beggren, then look at the summary. Your task is to fill the gaps in the summary with one or two words. Write your answers on the dotted lines. Two examples marked (0) have been given for you.

The wedding photographer

What sparked your interest in photography?

"My brother built a darkroom in his closet when we were kids. I thought it was cool."

What is the biggest lesson you took away from your experience in photography school?
"Don't be afraid to experiment; don't be afraid to fail; and always be open to new things. "

Tell me about your company.

"I started it with my husband about a year and a half ago, not long after our own wedding."

How do you market yourself?

"Advertising has been a big part of my marketing this past year. I have built a good web site. I have printed ads in a few of the big wedding magazines, as well as web presence on their sites."

Your company specializes in wedding photography. What is it like to capture such special moments for others?

"Weddings are such an emotionally filled day, and photography to me is a very emotional process. Thank God for auto-focus because I still get a little teary during ceremonies. I tell my brides we are there to capture and not interfere with what is really happening. This style has allowed us to fulfill our creative impulses and please our clients."

Describe your typical day at work.

"I'm typically glued to my computer, mostly editing and working on the jobs we shot the past weekend. Only about 20% of my work is actually shooting, the rest is running the business."

What do you love the most about your job?

"I really like being my own boss."

Task 2

Look at the following letters and the sentences following them.
Your task is to match the letters (8-14) to sentences A-I. There is a sentence you do not need.
Write the letters in the white boxes as in the example (0).

(0) Hi,
I just want to say how much I enjoyed the show in London. Good to hear the new stuff, eg. More Stupid and the Nothing Song.
Rod

8) Hi,
Our 17-month-old son just loves the O'Reilly Learning Python book. I think he especially likes the cute "mouse" on the cover. (I haven't had the guts to tell him that it's actually a rat). Just thought you might like to know.
Jack

9) Hi,
My daughter Ashley is 9 years old. She is a very good singer of classic country. She would like to make a CD but we cannot afford it at this time. Could you let me know how we can start a fan club? Thank you.

13) Hi Caroline,
I need your help about my mum. My father left before I was born. I am 14. My mum had a little girl about 2 years ago so there's a big age difference between us. These days my mum won't stop shouting at me about the littlest things. Please help. Thanx

Task 4

Read what an author says about her new novel and then read the statements (22-29) following the text.

- Mark a statement A if it is true according to the article.
- Mark it B if it is false.
- Mark it C if, on the basis of the article, it cannot be decided if it is true or false.

Write the letters in the white boxes as in the example (0).

Children of the Stone Age

Michelle Paver talks about Wolf Brother

I'm often asked why I stopped writing for adults and wrote Wolf Brother. I didn't. In fact, I never planned to write it at all, and when the story took hold, I was busy writing the third part of a historical trilogy. I had no time to spare for anything, let alone a six-book series about Stone Age hunter-gatherers.

Then one afternoon when I was leafing through some old notes, I came across a manuscript I had written at university, 20-odd years before. It was about a boy and a wolf struggling to survive in a forest. Something about it quickened my pulse. I wanted to rewrite it.

So I started running scenes in my mind's eye, like a film. The demon-haunted bear rampaging through the forest … Torak, the 12-year old hero watching his father die … A stampede of reindeer seen through the eyes of a wolf … Soon I was scribbling in my notebook. I lived the adventure alongside Torak and Wolf. The research took me to places I had never thought I'd see, and I ended up sleeping on reindeer skins in Lapland.

Somebody once said that one's real life is often the life that one does not lead. That's true for me. When I was a child, I wanted a wolf, and a bow and an arrow, and to live like the Stone Age people. I wanted to build my own shelter and go hunting in the forest. I tried it, too. I got rid of my bed and slept on the floor for three years. I made tea from different herbs, and gave it to my little sister.

When I became an adult I didn't grow out of all that, but it went underground. The childhood obsessions became a love of archaeology and the natural world; a fascination with the myths of Inuits and Native Americans; a lasting interest in wolf behaviour. Wolf Brother came to life when I realised that this was the world I had lost. This was the life I hadn't led.

0)	Wolf Brother is not Michelle Paver's first book.	0)	A
22)	Her historical trilogy was also very successful.	22)
23)	When at university, she found an old manuscript about a boy and a wolf.	23)
24)	In Wolf Brother, Torak's father is attacked by a bear.	24)
25)	Michelle Paver went to Lapland to research her topic.	25)
26)	As a child, Paver tried to imitate the way Stone Age people lived.	26)
27)	Her parents once stopped her from going hunting in the woods.	27)
28)	Paver's herbal remedies often made her little sister ill.	28)
29)	When she grew up, Paver's interests had completely changed.	29)

Experts believe that a (20) _____ (discover) in Mexico is the oldest example of writing ever found in the Americas. The people who created it (21) _____ (probable) lived 3,000 years ago, long before Christopher Columbus arrived in the New World.

Digging in a stone mine, (22) _____ (work) noticed a stone block with marks carved onto its surface. They found the large piece of stone in Cascajal, Mexico, near the capital city of an ancient people called the Olmec. "There are signs on the block that seem to show (23) _____ (religion) objects they used. For example, there is a sign that looks like a throne," an expert says. "It is (24) _____ (excite) because it makes it clear that the Olmec could read and write." But experts don't know (25) _____ (exact) what the writing says. Welcome to the Listening component of the Matura Examination.

The listening material and the instructions are recorded on this CD, and the tasks and instructions are printed in this test booklet.

- There will be three tasks, and every recording will be played twice.
- The tasks will begin with some music, and then you will hear (and you can also read) the instructions to the task.
- This will be followed by a silent period on the CD in order to give you some time to study the task in your test booklet before hearing the text.
- Then we will play the recording in one piece.
- After another short silent period we will play the recording for the second time, but now in shorter sections and with breaks between the sections in order to give you enough time to write down your answers.
- You will also have some time to check your work at the end of each task.

Please note that the first item in each task (marked with a tick [✓]) is always an example.

The whole test is about 30 minutes long.

Good luck!

TASK 1

- In this section you are going to hear a short, ironic text about Europe and some of its nations.
- Your task will be to fill in the gaps in the chart with one word.

You've received a letter from your English friend Martha. Here is the last part of it:

> Well, lately I have been getting told that I "need to know what I want to be when I grow up". I haven't got a clue. You know I like being outside, animals, drawing, photography, writing stories and poetry, I do enjoy maths, I ride horses – I'd like to have one, as a matter of fact, so any job you think of had better pay well, ha ha. Some things that I do not enjoy are office work, going from day to day with no excitement - and I don't want a job that will take me 10 years after leaving secondary school just to learn! Do you have any good ideas? Your help would be greatly appreciated!!!

Write a letter of 100-120 words to Martha in which you give her some advice, including the following:

- Recommend one job that you think might suit her.
- Describe the advantages and possible disadvantages of this job.
- Say if you personally would be interested in this job and why.

Begin your letter like this:
