Fontos tudnivalók

- Az utasításokat pontosan kell követni. Csak az utasításban megadott helyre beírt megoldás fogadható el.
- Mindig csak egy megoldást szabad beírni.
- A betűjelek legyenek jól olvashatóak, az esetleges javítások pedig egyértelműek.
- A megadott szószámot nem szabad túllépni. Az összevont alakok egy szónak számítanak (pl. "it's" egy szó, "it is" két szó).

Task 1

- Read the e-mails (1-6) from the web site of Andrew Johnston, the boy who became famous thanks to the TV show 'Britain's Got Talent', and then read the sentences (A-H) following them.
- Your task is to decide which messages the sentences refer to.
- Write the appropriate letters in the white boxes as in the example (0).
- Remember that there is an extra letter that you will not need.

0) Well done. Love the CD, love you too. I'm so glad you have a lovely site where people appreciate you. xxx Well done.

1) Hi Andrew, I've just bought your CD. You must be so proud of yourself! Hope to have a chance to meet you one day.
Chris - Brighton

2) Hi Andrew, here is a message from a Dutch fan! I can't wait for the moment when One Voice is available in the Netherlands! I have already heard some parts of the tracks on the Internet.
Best of luck! Marianne

3) Dear Andrew, I live in Rio de Janeiro. I have just bought four copies of your fabulous album tonight after searching on the Internet for all four! Marie

4) Hi Andrew, congratulations. You have been through a difficult period, so you really deserve to get on. You should have won that TV contest.
Paul

5) Well done Andrew, I love the album. It's your Mum and grandmother I want to thank. Nowadays it is challenging to bring kids up with confidence, respect and morality.
Hugs

6) Hi, Andrew, I bought your CD today. Outside it's raining but your wonderful voice brought the sunshine into my day. I wish you every success,
Love from Norfolk

The person who wrote the message to Andrew

A) admires his relatives.

B) would like to buy his album.

~~C) likes the comments on his site~~.

D) was cheered up by his music.

E) bought several copies of his album.

F) would like to see him in person.

G) is happy about listening to him at a concert.

H) admires him for coping with problems.

Task 2

- Read this history of the Frisbee, the popular flying disk used for sports games. The sentences (7-11) are missing.
- Your task is to put the jumbled sentences back in order.
- Write the letters in the white boxes as in the example (0).
- Remember that there is an extra sentence that you will not need.

FRISBEE

A baker named William Russel Frisbie, of Warren, Connecticut, and later of Bridgeport, came up with a clever marketing idea back in the 1870s.
(0) _____
(7) _____
(8) _____

There, sometime in the 1940s, Yale students began sailing the pie tins through the air and catching them.

(9) _____
(10) _____

On a promotional tour of college campuses, the president of Wham-O saw the pie-plate-tossing craze at Yale.

(11) _____

Of course the name was changed from Frisbie to Frisbee to avoid any legal problems.

11)

A) This disk was produced by a company named Wham-O.

B) It was her grandmother's secret recipe and she was very proud of it.

~~C) He put the family name on the bottom of the pans in which his company's homemade pies were sold~~.

D) Mr. Frisbie's pies were sold throughout Connecticut, including New Haven, where Yale University is located.

E) Later, in the 1950s, out in California, a flying-saucer enthusiast named Walter Frederick Morrison designed a saucer-like disk for playing catch.

F) And so the flying saucer from California was renamed after the pie plate from Connecticut.

G) The pans were reusable, but it was hoped that every time a housewife started to bake a pie in one, she would see the name Frisbie and, think, "How much easier to buy one than bake one".

- Remember that there is an extra letter that you do not need.

RECYCLING LITTER FUNDS HONEYMOON

John and Ann Till, from Petersfield, in Hampshire, Britain, had been planning for a while to get married but they did not have enough money to cover the cost of their dream honeymoon in the USA. Then, one day they had an idea while they were doing their shopping at the supermarket in Havant, (0) _____ .

They decided to take cans and bottles to the recycling centre at the supermarket, because, although they had enough money for a Queen Mary 2 cruise to New York, (12) _____ .
The couple started collecting rubbish in their home town. For every four recycled items, they earned a reward point which was then converted into British Airways air miles. They collected 36,000 miles, (13) _____ .

Mr Till said they had collected almost every night for three months during spring. He said "At the very beginning, we were concerned it would not be achievable, (14) _____ .
It's not to say the pavements were full of litter, it was (15) _____ . There was enough rubbish out there to fly us to the moon and back."

They reached their air miles goal in May, (16) _____ . They married in August, then sailed to New York on the Queen Mary 2 and spent a few days in Washington (17) _____ .

Their recycling feat came to light (18) _____ as part of its Read Around The World competition. Out of the stories sent in it was found to be the most interesting one.

The automated recycling machines were being trialled in a few of the larger UK stores. The supermarket chain spokesman David Nieberg said "We support all our customers (19) _____ . We have got a set of environmental targets and if it helped the Tills go on honeymoon - even better - we congratulate them on that."

A) when we looked over walls and in the undergrowth

B) they could not afford the journey home

~~C) where an automated recycling unit had been installed for a trial period~~

D) they sell rubbish bins

E) which they used to fly back in business class from their US honeymoon

F) but then we saw the amount of rubbish out there

G) who wish to recycle

H) when they started their preparations for the wedding

I) after they e-mailed a honeymoon picture to their local paper

- Mark a statement A if it is true according to the article.
- Mark it B if it is false.
- Mark it C if, on the basis of the article, it cannot be decided if it is true or false.
- Write the letters in the white boxes as in the example *(0).

POOH BEAR SKETCH SOLD FOR £31,000

An original sketch of favourite AA Milne character Winnie the Pooh has fetched £31,200 at auction – more than double its pre-sale estimate.

The pencil drawing of the bear dipping a paw in a honey pot was sold by the family of the artist, EH Shepard, at Bonhams auction rooms in London and easily exceeded its estimated price of £15,000. The drawing of Pooh, also showing Tigger and Piglet, is an enlarged version of the illustration "Tiggers don't like honey" used in The House at Pooh Corner. It was bought by a German collector for his wife. The man bought it on the telephone from Germany.

Bonhams' book specialist Luke Batterham said the Pooh stories are timeless because they are not "laden with morality like many children's tales". He said: "The illustrations are essential. The images are constantly in the public's mind because of all the spin-offs, but you can't beat the original drawings." He added that the original books have "outlived" and "defeated" the Disney versions of the story.

The sale also featured archive material from children's illustrator Beatrix Potter. A signed first edition of The Tailor of Gloucester plus correspondence between Beatrix and her friends, Elizabeth and Edith Todhunter, fetched £3,840.

In her letters to the sisters, Beatrix reveals her feelings about the commercialisation of her characters. She said of Peter Rabbit: "There is nothing more to be made of Peter commercially. There have been dolls, china, slippers, etc. for years - they bring in royalties; but somehow I never care for them."

0) The picture was sold for over twice as much as they had expected.

20) The German collector's wife was very happy about the drawing.

21) The collector went to London to buy the drawing.

22) The original version of the picture was smaller.

23) People do not remember the original illustrations.

24) The original Pooh stories are more popular than the Disney versions.

25) Beatrix Potter's letters to her friends were also sold.

26) Beatrix Potter created the character of Peter Rabbit.

27) Beatrix Potter did not like the Walt Disney film version of Peter Rabbit.

Welcome to the Listening component of the Matura Examination.

The listening material and the instructions are recorded on this CD, and the tasks and instructions are printed in your test booklet.

- There will be three tasks, and every recording will be played twice.
- The tasks will begin with some music, and then you will hear (and you can also read) the instructions to the task.
- This will be followed by a silent period on the CD in order to give you some time to look at the task in your test booklet before hearing the text.
- Then we will play the recording in one piece.
- After another short silent period we will play the recording for the second time, but now in shorter sections and with breaks between the sections in order to give you enough time to write down your answers.
- You will also have some time to check your work at the end of each task.

Please note that the first item in each task (marked with a tick [✓]) is always an example.

The whole test is about 30 minutes long.

Good luck!

- In this section you will hear an adventure story.
- Your task is to decide whether the following statements are true, false or we do not know because the text does not say, and write the appropriate letter in the boxes on the right. Write A if the statement is true, write B if the statement is false, and write C if the text does not say.
- First, you will have some time to look at the task, and then we will play the whole recording in one piece.
- Then, after a short pause, you will hear the recording again, but this time we will play the text in shorter sections to give you enough time to write down your answers.
- A= TRUE B= FALSE C= THE TEXT DOES NOT SAY

Task B

Your British friend, Alex, has decided to do voluntary work in his hometown from September. He cannot make up his mind what to do and has sent you this list of the options so that you can help him decide:

- Painting a local school.
- Visiting a local hospice.
- Conducting a story hour at a local children's centre.
- Helping in a local homeless shelter.
- Conducting a food or clothes drive for the needy.
- Spending an afternoon each week clearing rubbish from the local park.
- Training a youth sports team.
- Becoming involved in a local political campaign.
- Stocking shelves at the public library.
- Becoming a tutor at the nearby primary school.

Write a letter of 100-120 words to Alex in which you include the following:

- Which activity do you think would be the most useful for the community and why?
- Which one would be the most enjoyable for Alex and why?
- Have you ever done/do you intend to do any voluntary work yourself?

Begin your letter like this:
