Fontos tudnivalók

- Az utasításokat pontosan kell követni. Csak az utasításban megadott helyre beírt megoldás fogadható el.
- Mindig csak egy megoldást szabad beírni.
- A betűjelek legyenek jól olvashatóak, az esetleges javítások pedig egyértelműek.
- A megadott szószámot nem szabad túllépni. Az összevont alakok egy szónak számítanak (pl. "it's" egy szó, "it is" két szó).

Task 1

- In the following telephone conversation one of the speakers' lines have been removed.
- Your task is to write the letters of the missing lines (A-I) next to the appropriate numbers (1-7).
- There is one extra line that you do not need.
- Write the letters in the white boxes as in the example (0).

THE FBI AGENTS AND THE PIZZA MAN

This is a real-life telephone conversation between an FBI agent and a pizza restaurant. The FBI was investigating the Central Psychiatric Hospital in San Francisco after reports of serious financial irregularities. After hours of work, the group of agents got quite hungry, so they called a nearby pizza delivery service to order.

Agent: Hello. I would like to order 21 large pizzas and 73 cans of coke.

Pizza Man: (0) _____

A: To the psychiatric hospital, please.

PM: (1) _____

A: That's right. The name is Smith. I'm an FBI agent.

PM: (2) _____

A: I most certainly am. In fact, just about everybody here is.

PM: (3) _____

A: Yes, please. But make sure you don't go through the front doors. We have them locked. You will have to go around to the back to the service entrance to deliver the pizzas.

PM: (4) _____

A: Yes, all of us. How soon can you get the pizzas here?

PM: (5) _____

A: That's right. We've been here all day and we're very hungry.

PM: (6) _____

A: I have my American Express credit card right here.

PM: (7) _____

A: Certainly. Everyone here is an FBI agent. Can you remember to bring the pizzas and cokes to the service entrance in the rear?

PM: I don't think so. [Click]

A And you want us to deliver to the psychiatric hospital?

B Can you send me your menu please?

~~C~~ ~~And where would you like them delivered?~~

D Well, I guess that's fine – we do accept that. But tell me; are you really all from the FBI?

E Are you really an agent?

F Well, we are rather busy at the moment… is really everyone at the psychiatric hospital an FBI agent?

G And you say you're all FBI agents?

H The psychiatric hospital?

I How are you going to pay for all of this?

- Write the words on the dotted lines. An example (0) has been given for you.

MEET LITTLE MISS MOZART

Most children of her age would struggle to sit through an opera. But Alma Deutscher, 7, has become a classical music sensation after her first work in this particular genre was highly praised by the English National Opera.

Videos of her work have been viewed more than 300,000 times since her father shared them on YouTube – and her abilities have led to comparisons with Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart, who by five had mastered the keyboard and started composing. Alma wrote her own sonata at the age of six, followed by her opera, The Sweeper of Dreams, this year.

She said that her best compositions are created when she is on the swing in the garden at home, but she also keeps a music scorebook by her bed for when inspiration strikes after she falls asleep. Just like the idea for this work, which came in a dream.

Mr Deutscher and his wife Janie, who was an organ scholar at Oxford, moved with Alma and her four-year-old sister Helen from Oxford to Surrey so that they could be closer to the specialist Yehudi Menuhin School in Cobham, where Alma has weekly piano and violin lessons.

The rest of the time, she is taught at home, and practises and composes for between four and five hours a day. But her parents are not in favour of her taking part in competitions, and have turned down all invitations to appear on television shows. Alma, meanwhile, is working on a sonata that she was commissioned to write after performing one of her compositions brilliantly in Italy. 'It's not the same style as my first one,' she explained. 'It's very dramatic. It's more like Tchaikovsky than Mozart.'

When she is older, she wants a 'big house full of instruments, all sorts of pianos and violins, violas and cellos'.

'I don't mind if I am famous or not, I just want to be good,' she added.

GREAT GRANDMOTHER, 83, SETS UP ONLINE BUSINESS

Jean Robson, 83, from Slough set up her online business Handmaid, selling hand-made personalised gifts, at the end of last month and orders are already coming in. While others may be enjoying the quiet life in retirement, the 83-year-old is happiest in her work. She said: "I have exceptionally good health and I'm exceptionally fit. I would be bored out of my mind if I did nothing. I'm much fitter than most people 20 years younger than me. I live healthily, I grow my own food and don't smoke."

Before she moved to Slough, she lived in Burnham and ran her own shop – Handmaid – for 17 years. Now the website allows Jean to run her 'one-man-band' business from home, where she has lived since her husband died.

Jean, who has two children, four grandchildren and two great grandchildren, said: "Basically all I like doing is working. My job is what I would do as a hobby anyway. I never thought it would really take off but within a week of getting the website up and running I got my first order and I've had more since." She added: "The technology doesn't frighten me, I've been using a computer for quite a few years now."

Jean makes the gifts herself for births, christenings, weddings, anniversaries, birthdays and Christmas. Her most popular ranges include babies' cot quilts, cushions, make-up bags and greeting cards.

Welcome to the Listening component of the Matura Examination.

The listening material and the instructions are recorded on this CD, and the tasks and instructions are printed in your test booklet.

- There will be three tasks, and every recording will be played twice.
- The tasks will begin with some music, and then you will hear (and you can also read) the instructions to the task.
- This will be followed by a silent period on the CD in order to give you some time to look at the task in your test booklet before hearing the text.
- Then we will play the recording in one piece.
- After another short silent period we will play the recording for the second time, but now in shorter sections and with breaks between the sections in order to give you enough time to write down your answers.

Please note that the first item in each task (marked with a tick [✓]) is always an example.

The whole test is exactly 30 minutes long.

Good luck!

TASK 1

- In this part of the test you will hear a news report about a pair of twins.
- Your task will be to give short answers to the questions below.
- First, you will have some time to look at the task, and then we will play the whole recording in one piece.
- Then, you will hear the recording again, but this time we will play the text in shorter sections to give you enough time to write down your answers.

Task A

You are spending two months in London and your friend Chris has sent you an email inviting you to the following programme on Saturday night:

An Evening with the Stars at Royal Observatory Greenwich

Times: 10:30-11:30 PM, 1:30-2:30 AM, 2:00-3:00 AM

Venue: Royal Observatory Greenwich

Come to the Royal Observatory Greenwich for a night of astronomy. The programme consists of a planetarium show to illustrate what's in the night sky on the day of your visit, a chance to look through our gigantic 18-tonne Victorian telescope, and some time on the Prime Meridian after dark with an amazing view, a hot drink and astronomers to answer your questions.

(www.timeout.london)

Write an email of 50-80 words to Chris in which you

- accept the invitation,
- say why you are interested,
- choose the time you prefer and say why.

> I'm a 17-year-old boy and am in year 11 doing my A level examinations. I'm finding it so much harder than I ever imagined.
>
> I have an older sister and an older brother and there's always been a lot of rivalry. My brother is 25 and did brilliantly at everything. He's now a lawyer. My sister is 19. She got into the national swimming team last year and still got fantastic A levels. She's at Cambridge University now and everyone is so proud of her.
>
> I know I'll never achieve anything like that. Whatever I do, it's never going to be as good as my sister and my brother. I know I'm the one putting pressure on myself but I get really panicky when I think about it. I feel like I'm going to be a big disappointment to my parents.
