Fontos tudnivalók

- Az utasításokat pontosan kell követni. Csak az utasításban megadott helyre beírt megoldás fogadható el.
- Mindig csak egy megoldást szabad beírni.
- A betűjelek legyenek jól olvashatóak, az esetleges javítások pedig egyértelműek.
- A megadott szószámot nem szabad túllépni. Az összevont alakok egy szónak számítanak (pl. "it's" egy szó, "it is" két szó).

Task 1

- Read this article about different types of tea and then read the sentences (1-8) following it.
- Mark a sentence A if it is true according to the article.
- Mark it B if it is false.
- Mark it C if there isn't enough information in the text to decide if the sentence is true or not.
- Write your answers in the white boxes next to the numbers as in the example (0).

Black Tea

Black tea is the most popular type of tea. It contains the most caffeine if you are looking for an energy boost. It also has the strongest flavour, which is often compared to chocolate. Black tea has the longest shelf life of any tea; it keeps its flavour for several years. Don't worry if some people call black tea red, because this is its name in several Asian countries.

White Tea

White tea is the rarest of all teas and it is made with very young leaves, which have a light colour. It is widely believed that the caffeine level of white tea is higher than in green tea, although some scientists say the opposite. Studies have also shown that it is better against viruses and bacteria than green tea.

Green Tea

Green tea is closely related to white tea. It has a similar taste, but it uses rolled leaves. Green tea has been studied far more than any other tea and many scientists say it is good for people on a slimming diet. If you don't like those visits to the dentist, there is good news for you: green tea keeps your teeth healthy, too.

Oolong Tea

The final type of true tea is oolong tea. As for its strength, it falls between green and black. It has neither the rosy aroma of black tea nor the grassy taste of green tea. Instead, oolong tea is described as bitter with a sweet melon-like aftertaste. You can find oolong tea in any Chinese restaurant you may go to.

0)	A

0) Among all types most people prefer black tea.

1) Many people think black tea tastes like chocolate.

2) Red tea is just another name for black tea.

3) You can buy white tea in most countries of the world.

4) Everybody agrees that white tea has as much caffeine as green tea.

5) It is good to drink green tea if you want to lose weight.

6) Green tea is also very effective against headaches.

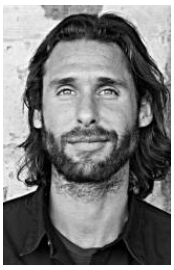

7) Oolong tea is stronger than black tea.

8) As you start drinking it, oolong tea is sweet.

Task 2

- In the following interview with explorer David de Rothschild the questions have been removed.
- Your task is to write the letters of the questions (A-K) next to the appropriate numbers (9-16).
- There is one extra question that you do not need.
- Write the letters in the white boxes as in the example (0).

0) _____
David: I was very lively and curious. I was always asking questions.

9) _____
David: My uncle, Peter Robeson – he's an Olympic swimmer.

10) _____
David: No, I grew up on a farm and we all wanted to be vets. But I still think it's important to close your eyes now and then and let your mind take you where you want to go. And then act on it.

11) _____
David: I studied natural medicine and it led me to questions about why we use the things we do and to thoughts like you are what you breathe. These kinds of ideas led me to where I am today working as an explorer.

12) _____
David: I usually get up early in the morning and I'm up till very late at night. I spend a lot of time talking to people, writing, responding to lots of e-mails, and meeting with scientists. And I take time to stay fit and healthy too!

13) _____
David: I'm always smiling and acting a little crazy – whether I'm playing jokes on a friend or preparing for an expedition.

14) _____
David: I don't know… the world is so big. Probably Madagascar and I'd love to go back down to Antarctica again. But everywhere I go is an adventure. So ask me that again when I'm 70 years old!

15) _____
David: There are two really. One is to be honest. And the second one is: don't be afraid to make a mistake. You aren't going to know if you don't try.

16) _____
David: Here is one. Two people are out sailing when suddenly a hand appears in the sea. "What's that?" asks one of them. "It looks as if someone is drowning!"
"No," explains the other one, "it's just a little wave."

- Your task is to reconstruct the text by filling in the gaps (17-23) from the list (A-I) below.
- Remember that there is one extra phrase that you will not need.
- Write the letters in the white boxes next to the numbers as in the example (0).

ROBOTIC CAR DEVELOPED BY OXFORD UNIVERSITY

Scientists at Oxford University have developed a new car that can "see" the world around it

The adapted car can use data from technology (0) _____ . Professor Newman, the project leader, is convinced that on-board computer capacity will have a great effect on motoring in the future. He said: "You can imagine one company advertising a model of car (17) _____ and then another manufacturer will come out with one that does fifteen minutes."

Already there are cars (18) _____ and last year Google announced its self-driving car, saying that it had driven more than 140,000 miles on American roads. The Oxford car differs from Google's, because (19) _____ and uses a three dimensional map of streets.

Prof Newman added: "Think of the impact (20) _____ : they have totally changed them, and the same thing is going to happen on the roads. In the future autonomous robotic vehicles will take us safely and efficiently from A to B (21) _____ .

The advantage of computer assisted vehicles is that they will never get tired and they can connect to the internet to communicate with other cars. As Prof Newman explained: "We need cars that do the thinking and concentrating for you, cars that (22) _____ . If the going is slow why can't I watch the show I missed last night, Skype with the kids, read a book (23) _____ and get the car to handle the job of the trip for me?"

The legal problem of how people can insure an autonomously driven car is one of the questions that will need to be resolved, but for now Professor Newman says he wants to concentrate on making the technology work.

Task 4

- Read this funny story about three accidents and then read the half sentences that follow the text.
- Your task is to match the half sentences based on the information in the story.
- Write the letters (A-I) in the white boxes next to the numbers (24-30) as in the example (0).
- Remember that there is one extra letter that you will not need.

THREE ACCIDENTS

A man was working on his motorcycle in the garden while his wife was making dinner. He started racing the engine of the motorcycle and somehow it started moving, so the man was dragged through a glass door and the motorcycle ended up on the floor inside the house. The wife ran into the dining room and found her husband lying on the floor, cut and bleeding, the motorcycle lying next to him and the glass door shattered. She immediately called an ambulance.

After the husband was taken to hospital, the wife pushed the motorcycle outside. Seeing that petrol had spilled on the floor, she wiped it up with some paper towels and threw them into the toilet.

Two hours later, after arriving home from the hospital, the husband looked at the shattered door and the damage done to his motorcycle. He became depressed, went into the bathroom, sat on the toilet and smoked a cigarette. After finishing the cigarette, he flipped it into the toilet bowl while still seated. The wife, who was in the kitchen, heard a very loud explosion.

She ran into the bathroom and found her husband on the floor. He was suffering burns on his bottom and the back of his legs. The wife called for an ambulance again and the same crew was sent. They loaded the husband onto a stretcher and began carrying him down to the street.

While going down the steps, the paramedics asked the wife how the husband had burned himself. She told them, and they started laughing so hard that one of them tipped the stretcher and dropped the husband. He fell down the remaining steps and broke his ankle.

- There is an example (0) at the beginning.

THE LIGHT OF LIBERTY

On July 4, 1884 France presented the United States with an (0) _____ (credible) birthday gift: the Statue of Liberty! The statue standing in New York Harbor has welcomed (21) _____ (visit), immigrants, and returning Americans traveling by ship for more than a century. It's a (22) _____ (universe) symbol of freedom and democracy.

It started one night near Paris in 1865. A group of Frenchmen were discussing their dictator-like emperor and the democratic (23) _____ (govern) of the U.S. They decided to build a monument to American freedom – and strengthen French demands for democracy in their own country. Frédéric-Auguste Bartholdi, the (24) _____ (fame) sculptor, was there. He imagined a statue of a woman holding a torch burning with the light of freedom.

Turning Bartholdi's idea into (25) _____ (real) took 21 years. Americans paid for the pedestal and French (26) _____ (support) raised money to build the statue. It was built in France, presented to the U.S., taken apart, shipped across the Atlantic Ocean and rebuilt in the U.S. It was (27) _____ (final) dedicated on October 28, 1886.

At that time the statue was the tallest structure in the U.S. (28) _____ (tour) climb 354 steps to look out from 25 windows in the crown. The seven rays in the crown represent the Earth's seven seas.

Welcome to the Listening component of the Matura Examination.

The listening material and the instructions are recorded on the CD, and the tasks and instructions are printed in your test booklet.

- There are three tasks, and every recording will be played twice.
- The tasks will begin with some music, and then you will hear (and you can also read) the instructions to the task.
- This will be followed by a silent period on the CD in order to give you some time to look at the task in your test booklet before hearing the text.
- Then we will play the recording in one piece.
- After another short silent period we will play the recording for the second time, but now in shorter sections and with breaks between the sections in order to give you enough time to write down your answers.

Please note that the first item in each task (marked with a tick [✓]) is always an example.

The whole test is about 30 minutes long.

Good luck!

TASK 1

- In this section, you will hear some information about an informal holiday which is celebrated in many parts of the world.
- Your task will be to complete the sentences with two words in each sentence. Please use the exact words that you hear in the recording.
- First, you will have some time to study the task, and then we will play the whole recording in one piece.
- Then, you will hear the recording again, but this time we will play the text in shorter sections to give you enough time to write down your answers.

Task B

On the internet forum for school-leavers called Exam Worries you found the following problem:

> It's less than 48 hours before my final piano exam at the music school and I am really nervous. I have to leave early tomorrow and have nowhere to practise before the exam. So the next time I play the pieces will be at the exam. Right now I am fixated on what to wear. As a kid I always did my exams at school, so I was in school uniform. But I don't know what to wear now that I have no school uniform anymore and even if I did, I think it would look a bit silly.
>
> Do you think examiners get upset by people who wear – decent and clean! – jeans? Even with a white shirt? The reason I am asking is that tomorrow I will be spending most of the day roaming around town and I have a long train journey to get there in the first place and then a long journey back after the exam. But would a suit be better? AND a tie?
>
> Does anyone else worry about silly things like this, or is it just me projecting all my exam nerves onto the clothing?
