Fontos tudnivalók

- Az utasításokat pontosan kell követni. Csak az utasításban megadott helyre beírt megoldás fogadható el.
- Mindig csak egy megoldást szabad beírni.
- A betűjelek legyenek jól olvashatóak, az esetleges javítások pedig egyértelműek.
- A megadott szószámot nem szabad túllépni. Az összevont alakok egy szónak számítanak (pl. "it's" egy szó, "it is" két szó).

Task 1

• In the following interview with a firefighter the questions have been removed.
• Your task is to write the letters of the questions (A-L) next to the appropriate numbers (1- 8).
• There are two extra questions that you do not need.
• Write the letters in the white boxes as in the example (0).

AN INTERVIEW WITH A FIREFIGHTER

0) _____
I'm a firefighter.

1) _____
We do everything from fighting grass fires, house fires, rubbish fires to car fires. Everybody here is an emergency medical technician so we also go to medical calls, any time.

2) _____
You need a high school education, a clean police record, and a lot of heart.

3) _____
I worked for the emergency medical service for 10 years before I came here, and I worked on medical calls and I just decided I wanted to be a firefighter. Then I went, applied, and took the test.

4) _____
Helping in the community and my fantastic colleagues. I also like the work schedule: we work 24 hours on, 48 off, so that's ten 24 hour shifts a month. It gives me a lot of time to do things with my family, kids and wife.

5) _____
Being able to keep control over your emotions. When things are very stressful you tend to get excited, you do things too fast. You've got to step back and take a look at everything before you act; and I think that's one of the hardest things for people to learn.

6) _____
Right now a guy with less than 10 years on the job gets about 3 weeks' vacation per year.

7) _____
That we just sit up here, watch TV, eat, and only go when there's a fire. In fact, we hardly ever sit down, even if there's no fire.

8) _____
One day I would like to become captain.

Task 2

- Read the following story about a popular packaging material.
- Your task is to put the sentences (A-G) in the correct order.
- Write the letters in the boxes as shown in the example *(0).
- There is one extra letter that you do not need.

Bubble Wrap's original purpose was nothing like what we use the product for today.
In 1957, engineer Al Fielding and Swiss inventor Marc Chavannes were trying to create a special wallpaper.

0) _____

9) _____

10) _____

However, this use of the product didn't become popular, either.

11) _____

12) _____

He presented the idea to IBM and demonstrated the product's protective abilities.

13) _____

Since then, Sealed Air has grown to sales of around $4 billion a year, with a net profit of around $255 million, and around $400 million worth of Bubble Wrap is sold annually.

(mentalfloss.com)

A) Bowers got the idea that Bubble Wrap could be used as a good packaging material to protect the computer while it was being transported.

| | |
|---|---|
| 0) | C |

B) Not giving up, they decided to sell their invention to prevent heat from escaping from greenhouses.

| | | |

| 9) | | |

~~C) To do so, they sealed two shower curtains together in such a way that air bubbles were captured, giving it a new appearance.~~

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| 10) | | |

D) It wasn't until 1959 – when IBM started selling their new 1401 computer model - that Frederick Bowers, a marketer at their company Sealed Air, finally came up with the perfect use for it.

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| 11) | | |

E) His demonstration was successful, and IBM started buying Bubble Wrap to protect their 1401 model and other fragile products they sold and transported.

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| 12) | | |

F) The popping sound of the little bubbles - when they got punctured - made a lot of people happy.

G) But the wallpaper idea didn’t sell too well.

Task 3

- Read this article about some plans concerning the date of Easter and then read the statements (14-20) following it.
- Mark a sentence A if it is true according to the article.
- Mark it B if it is false.
- Mark it C if there isn't enough information in the text to decide if the sentence is true or not.
- Write the letters in the white boxes next to the numbers as in the example (0).

ARCHBISHOP JUSTIN WELBY HOPES FOR FIXED EASTER DATE

Archbishop of Canterbury Justin Welby made the announcement after a meeting of leaders of the Anglican church. He is currently working with high-ranking members of other Christian churches to agree on a fixed date for Easter.

In the UK, an act of Parliament passed in 1928 allowed for Easter Sunday to be fixed on the first Sunday after the second Saturday in April. However, this has never been activated and Easter has remained variable, determined by the moon's cycle.

The issue is back on the agenda as Easter is the most important Christian festival. It celebrates the resurrection of Jesus Christ following his death by crucifixion on Good Friday. The archbishop said he was in talks with Pope Francis, Coptic leader Pope Tawadros, and the leader of the Orthodox church Patriarch Bartholomew. Mr Welby said he hoped the change would happen "in between five and ten years' time."

"I would love to see it before I retired," he said, although he warned that the first time they tried to make such a change was in the 10th century. An Anglican source told the BBC there had been 15 attempts to agree a common date since then.

Easter is on the first Sunday after the first full moon following the spring equinox, which usually falls on the 21st of March, when day and night are equally long. This means that Easter can be celebrated on a Sunday between 22nd March and 25th April. However, the Orthodox church follows the Julian calendar, and so it has later Easter celebrations compared with those of Western Christianity.

It is yet to be seen whether this latest attempt to fix the date will be successful.

| 0) The Archbishop of Canterbury wishes to fix the date of Easter. | 0) | A |
| 14) Mr Welby will soon contact other church leaders about his plan. | 14) | |
| 15) In Britain there was a short period in the 20th century when Easter was fixed. | 15) | |
| 16) Most members of the British parliament are against this plan. | 16) | |
| 17) Pope Francis and the leader of the Orthodox church both agree with Mr Welby's proposal. | 17) | |
| 18) The Archbishop hopes that in about a decade Easter will already be fixed. | 18) | |
| 19) In the past people have already tried to fix the date of Easter more than fifteen times. | 19) | |
| 20) If there is an agreement about fixing Easter, the Orthodox church will abandon the Julian calendar. | 20) | |

Welcome to the Listening component of the Matura Examination.

The listening material and the instructions are recorded on this CD, and the tasks and instructions are printed in your test booklet.

- There will be three tasks, and every recording will be played twice.
- The tasks will begin with some music, and then you will hear (and you can also read) the instructions to the task.
- This will be followed by a silent period on the CD in order to give you some time to look at the task in your test booklet before hearing the text.
- Then we will play the recording in one piece.
- After another short silent period we will play the recording for the second time, but now in shorter sections and with breaks between the sections in order to give you enough time to write down your answers.

Please note that the first item in each task (marked with a tick [✓]) is always an example.

The whole test is exactly 30 minutes long.

Good luck!

Fontos tudnivalók

Mindkét feladatot meg kell írni!
A pontozott sorokra kell írni!
Ügyeljen a megadott szószámra! Amennyiben a létrehozott szöveg jelentősen eltér (rövidebb, hosszabb) a megadott szóintervallumtól, az pontlevonással jár.

Task 1

You are studying in London. Your friend Josh has sent you the following advertisement for an exhibition opening this weekend and has asked you whether you would like to join him:

The Design Museum celebrates all things bike, from cycling subcultures to the future of two-wheeled riding

It's not just a display of cool bikes, although fans can get within touching distance of some of the most iconic machines of the last 100 years. There's Eddy Merckx's steel lightweight, which he used to break the 1972 Hour Record, or the priceless Pinarello that Bradley Wiggins rode in a race this year.

As well as the High Performers above, there are the mountain bikes and BMXs, cargo bikes to transport goods or kids, and plain old city bikes, which probably most of us use.

Keep pedalling!

(http://www.timeout.com/london/things-to-do/cycle)

Write an email of 80-100 words to Josh in which you accept the invitation and

- say why you are interested in the exhibition,
- ask about the location of the museum,
- ask about opening hours and entrance fees.

Begin your email like this:

Hi Josh,

Task 2

You received the following email from your American friend, Calvin:

I thought I had it all: a great (smart) school, playing the drums in a wonderful band, a bundle of friends. Then my Dad started having problems with his work, so we moved to the West Coast before Christmas. It's as if my life just melted away. The new school is WAY below my expectations, and the band's just a bunch of hopeless beginners. I keep in touch with my old friends, but nothing's the same.

On top of that, the kids in my class tease me because I'm a vegetarian and I'm not good at sports – the only thing that seems to matter to THEM. They're constantly telling me how weird I am, and the girl who I have to sit next to enjoys throwing my pens and notebooks off my desk. Sometimes I get so frustrated that I start screaming at them. Then they ask me why I'm so mad. It's like they purposely upset me for fun. What should I do?

Write an email of 100-120 words to Calvin in which you tell him

- if you have any experience with changing schools,
- what you think of his classmates' behaviour,
- if Calvin should change his behaviour to improve the situation,
- if it would be a good idea to tell his parents/teachers about the problem.

Begin your email like this.

Hi Calvin,
