Fontos tudnivalók

- Az utasításokat pontosan kell követni. Csak az utasításban megadott helyre beírt megoldás fogadható el.
- Mindig csak egy megoldást szabad beírni.
- A betűjelek legyenek jól olvashatóak, az esetleges javítások pedig egyértelműek.
- A megadott szószámot nem szabad túllépni. Az összevont alakok egy szónak számítanak (pl. "it's" egy szó, "it is" két szó).

Task 1

Read this article about a man who rescued a gosling and then read the sentences (1- 6) following it.
● Mark a sentence A if it is true according to the article.
● Mark it B if it is false.
● Mark it C if there is not enough information in the text to decide if the sentence is true or not.
● Write your answers in the white boxes next to the numbers as in the example (0).

MAN AND GOOSE MAKE UNUSUAL FRIENDSHIP

Two years ago, Mike Jivanjee spotted a tiny little gosling in a lake. The bird was alone, almost drowning, and at risk of being hit by a boat at any moment. So Mike did the right thing, wrapped up the gosling in a towel, and found her family about 100 yards away. But sadly the other geese made it clear that the tiny gosling wasn't welcome.

Mike decided he would take the gosling home and care for her until she was fully grown, at which point he would release her into the wild. But the goose, who Mike named Kylie, had other plans. Every time Mike tried to let Kylie fly away, she just kept coming back. She wouldn't leave him alone.

After constant attempts to set Kylie free, Mike realised that he had no other option but to accept his new friend. Kylie now follows him everywhere – to the shops, when he's out on his boat, around the house.

'Kylie's personality is a lot like a person's,' says Mike. 'She has her good days and bad days. She can do things she knows she is not supposed to. Like boarding other people's boats, harassing neighbors or stealing things from them. She loves to steal small items like keys, wallets, flip flops and throw them in the lake.'

When they're together (which is pretty much all the time), Mike and Kylie love to go to Starbucks and watch TV. Kylie loves all shows on the Discovery Channel. She's also a huge fan of the Ellen Show and Animal Planet. Kylie also loves to go paddle and hang out inside neighbors' houses when they go on vacation. She does not identify as a goose so she wants to be with people all the time.

Task 2

• In the following interview with Will Shortz, Crossword Editor for The New York Times the questions have been removed.
• Your task is to match the questions to the answers.
• Write the letters of the questions (A-K) next to the appropriate numbers (7-13).
• There are two extra questions that you do not need.
• Write the letters in the white boxes as in the example (0).

0) _____ ?

Almost any kind. Sam Loyd, the great American puzzle genius, was my childhood hero. I bought his puzzle collections from Dover Books.

7) _____ ?
Yes, they have a special course, which was new when I was there. If you're accepted, you can have a programme of your choice.

8)_____ ?
It's the participants. Crossword people tend to be smart, interesting and often funny, too. They're my kind of people.

9) _____ ?
You have to be a good speller, of course, and have a wide vocabulary. It helps to know a little about everything, from classical to modern.

10) _____ ?
Many of the crosswords I ran in the 1990s wouldn't get accepted today. Standards have risen both in themes and fill.

11) _____ ?
The worst kind involves ones like AROA, a Venezuelan copper center, IMU, a Hawaiian baking pit, and CERE and PELA, kinds of Chinese wax. I try never to use them.

12) _____ ?
Well, I think they will do fine in the electronic age. They're the best and most flexible form of puzzle ever devised.

13) _____ ?
Fewer than a hundred. And as one of these, I'm a very lucky guy.

IT'S TWIXMAS TIME: PLACES TO VISIT IN THE UK BETWEEN CHRISTMAS AND NEW YEAR

0) _____
For the first time ever, the beautiful gardens of this majestic building will be illuminated by torches and candles to create a magical after-dark trail. There will be seasonal themes in each section, including a fire garden and a small playground for children.

14) _____
The world's largest experience of its kind is open all year round. The family attraction stands at the historic yard where the ship was built and has nine interactive galleries, as well as other exhibitions allowing a glimpse into the glamour of the first-class cabins, as well as the story of that tragic voyage.

15) _____
This charming place becomes even more so over the festive season, when its range of old living rooms receive seasonal decoration, giving an example of holiday activities in English households through the ages.

16) _____
This place is another family favourite, especially for those who love taking a walk while admiring this great outdoor exhibition by some of the leading artists of the 20th century. In winter it can be particularly picturesque: as the artworks stand out atop a white carpet of snow.

17) _____
This natural wonder is an iconic part of the region's heritage. The programme lasts about 2 hours depending on weather conditions and how fast you can progress. The visitors' centre is open daily and, of course, the great basalt columns and coastal path are open all year around.

18) _____
Now with a see-through roof, this place is an all-weather affair, without anything to ruin the beautiful views of the building while you glide along. There's also a nearby café for after-sport relaxation which serves mulled wine and mince pies.

THE SIX RAVENS

If anything characterizes the British, it is how they respect and preserve their traditions and legends. One of these (0) _____ (fascinate) legends is the story of the six ravens at the Tower of London.

The legend, and with it the tradition, was born during the reign of Charles II (1630-1685). The king's (1) _____ (astronomy) wanted to remove all the ravens from the Tower. These birds spent all day flying around, making it (2) _____ (possible) for him to observe the sky with his telescope. But King Charles II thought it would be bad luck to scare or kill the ravens. To ensure the (3) _____ (protect) of these birds Charles II ruled that there should always be at (4) _____ (little) six ravens inhabiting the Tower.

One of the first (5) _____ (describe) of the Tower of London's ravens appeared in a novel by a Japanese writer, The Tower of London. He wrote that those executed in the Tower were turned into ravens. It is a fabulous dark story that adds to the (6) _____ (magic) of the place.

Today, the ravens are (7) _____ (register) as 'soldiers' of the Kingdom, and, thus, can be expelled from the Tower if they misbehave. This happened to Raven George, who was fired in 1986 for (8) _____ (attack) TV antennas; he was taken to the Zoological Park of Wales.

Welcome to the Listening component of the Matura Examination.

The listening material and the instructions are recorded on this CD, and the tasks and instructions are printed in your test booklet.

- There will be three tasks, and every recording will be played twice.
- The tasks will begin with some music, and then you will hear (and you can also read) the instructions to the task.
- This will be followed by a silent period on the CD in order to give you some time to look at the task in your test booklet before hearing the text.
- Then we will play the recording in one piece.
- After another short silent period we will play the recording for the second time, but now in shorter sections and with breaks between the sections in order to give you enough time to write down your answers.

Please note that the first item in each task (marked with a tick [✓]) is always an example.

The whole test is exactly 30 minutes long.

Good luck!

Task 1

You are touring the north-east of England. Your friend, Brian, who lives in Durham, sent you this photo and some interesting facts about Holy Island (Lindisfarne) and invited you to join him and stay there for a couple of days.

A TIDAL ISLAND: Holy Island is linked to the mainland by a long causeway. Twice each day the tide sweeps in from the North Sea and covers the road. The causeway crossing times are forecasted 'safe' crossing times. Nevertheless, travellers should remain cautious if crossing near either end of the road.

TIDAL WARNING: There are vast variations in tide times throughout each month and in particular during strong winds. Ensure that you observe the warning signs particularly along the road side.

(https://www.lindisfarne.org.uk/general/relhist.htm)

Write an email of 80-100 words to Brian in which you thank him for the invitation and inquire about:

- getting to the island,
- accommodation and costs,

Task 2

You received the following email from your Finnish friend, Heikki:

Hi,

I decided to take a gap year and do some charity work before I go to college, partly, because I want to improve my CV, but also to try myself doing something really and instantly useful.

I found Alliance Nepal, a charity organisation, which offers a volunteer and internship experience in Nepal (in an area of my choice) where I could teach English and also have the opportunity to assist in other school activities such as sports and extracurricular projects (also trips, I hope).

It has always been my dream to go to Nepal, which I think is one of the most mysterious places in the world, so I can't wait to apply but first I'd like to know what you think of this idea.

Imagine ME standing there? Please reply ASAP.

Take care,

Heikki

Write an email of 100-120 words to Heikki in which you tell him

- what you think of taking a gap-year,
- if you like his choice of place and charity,
- whether you have ever taken part/ would like to take part in a similar project,
- what practical questions you think he should ask the organisers.
