Fontos tudnivalók

- Az utasításokat pontosan kell követni. Csak az utasításban megadott helyre beírt megoldás fogadható el.
- Mindig csak egy megoldást szabad beírni.
- A betűjelek legyenek jól olvashatóak, az esetleges javítások pedig egyértelműek.
- A megadott szószámot nem szabad túllépni. Az összevont alakok egy szónak számítanak (pl. "it's" egy szó, "it is" két szó).

A feladatlapban nem jelölt források a javítási-értékelési útmutatóban szerepelnek.

Task 1

- Read the following questions and answers from the website of a tourist attraction in Edinburgh. The questions have been removed.
- Your task is to write the letters of the questions (A-M) next to the appropriate numbers (1- 8).
- There are three extra questions that you do not need.
- Write the letters in the white boxes as in the example (0).

FAQS ABOUT YOUR VISIT TO CAMERA OBSCURA AND WORLD OF ILLUSIONS

Welcome to Edinburgh's oldest visitor attraction, delighting visitors since 1853. Here's everything you need to know before you visit.

0) _____
Most people get around all our attractions in about one hour and 45 minutes, but you may spend as long as you like enjoying the illusions.

1) _____
Yes, if we have spaces available, you can purchase tickets on the day at our front desk. However, we would recommend booking in advance to avoid disappointment.

2) _____
There's something for everyone, from babies to grandparents. Even hard-to-impress teenagers love Camera Obscura.

3) _____
We have a storage area for big items like suitcases and backpacks. Please note that items can only be stored for the duration of your visit at Camera Obscura.

4) _____
Our 17th-century building is listed by Historic Environment Scotland, so for the time being, we are a stairs-only attraction.

5) _____
We don't have an on-site café, but your ticket gets you money off at several nearby cafés and restaurants.

6) _____
Yes. We pride ourselves on being a pet-friendly attraction and offer all our furry friends a treat of a biscuit on arrival.

7) _____
Yes. You will be able to connect with the access code that you get at the admissions desk on your arrival.

8) _____
Yes. Photography is allowed everywhere except in the Camera Obscura chamber. Please share your photos with us by tagging us on social media.

WHEN SHOULD YOU TAKE DOWN YOUR CHRISTMAS DECORATIONS?

Some of the trickiest questions about Christmas are about the decorations. When do you (0) _____ and when do you remove them?

Lots of people (9) _____ if it's too early to put their decorations up and come January, even more start wondering when they have to (10) _____ . It's important to point out, though, that there aren't any definite rules about Christmas decorations.

Some people love to put them up right after Halloween, and if shops (11) _____ , you start thinking it's time to have them up at home. However, others argue that having your decorations up too early can mean you (12) _____ Christmas comes along. But in any case, it's up to you and your family to (13) _____ .

A little bit more strict is the tradition about taking decorations down — but even this can be a bit confusing. One of the most famous traditions is that of Twelfth Night and the idea that it is bad luck to (14) _____ past Twelfth Night. Twelfth Night is a Christian festival that takes place on the last night of the Twelve Days of Christmas, marking the coming of the feast of Epiphany when Christians celebrate the visit of the Three Wise Men.

There is no definite date for Twelfth Night and different religious traditions (15) _____ . Some believe it comes twelve days after Christmas Day, so on 5 January, while others (16) _____ on 26 December, which puts Twelfth Night on 6 January.

Task 3

- Read the following description of zoos and safari parks in Britain and then read the half sentences that follow the text.
- Your task is to match the half sentences based on the information in the text.
- Write the letters (A-I) in the white boxes next to the numbers (17-21) as in the example (0).
- Remember that there are three extra letters that you will not need.

THE UK'S BEST ZOOS

A day out at the zoo is always fun and there's definitely something to keep all the family happy. This guide may help you decide where to go next.

Whipsnade Zoo is the largest zoo in the UK. You can drive to different sections of the zoo and park there, which is a good option if you're with little kids. Whipsnade's main draws include its elephants, bears and rhinos. It also has an aquarium and an indoor play area for rainier days.

Port Lympne is one of the best safari parks in the UK. It's not just a wildlife reserve but you can also stay overnight in one of their themed hotels and yurts. But the biggest draw here must be the cabins overlooking the different animals. It's not cheap but it's very popular.

Colchester Zoo is the UK's largest private zoo, where entrance fees and purchases go towards the upkeep of the zoo and its charity. There's always lots happening and there are opportunities for kids to hand feed the goats, sheep and rainbow lorikeets.

Paignton Zoo is one of the top zoos in the UK if you're looking for flora and fauna as it is the UK's first combined botanical and zoological garden. Besides a number of great animal experiences, you can see a collection of trees and flowers from all over the world.

Shaldon Wildlife Trust does lots of conservation work on behalf of endangered species. You'll find lemurs, cotton-top tamarins and meerkats, as well as armadillos. However, it is a tiny zoo, which measures just one acre, so you'll be able to get around it in half a day.

Chester Zoo was the first zoo in the UK to successfully breed Asian elephants in captivity. It has a huge team of scientists, vets and zookeepers working on its breeding programmes and caring for the animals who live there. Chester Zoo has 21,000 animals across 500 different species, which makes it the biggest zoo in the UK in terms of animal count.

Task 4

- Read this article about what young people can do if they are upset by the news.
- Some sentences have been left out from the text.
- Your task is to reconstruct the text by filling in the gaps (22-27) from the list (A-I) below.
- Write the letters in the white boxes next to the numbers as in the example (0).
- Remember that there are two extra letters that you do not need.

ADVICE IF YOU'RE UPSET BY THE NEWS

Sometimes things that happen in the world can make us sad, anxious or confused. It's important to know that it is perfectly normal to have those feelings. (0) _____ Adults get sad and confused too, so there is nothing wrong with feeling like this.

(22) _____ For example, watch your favourite film, take your dog for a walk or chat with a friend. Also, try to balance the news you read. Have you read a sad story? (23) _____

Is being worried making it more difficult to fall asleep? (24) _____ Before you go to bed, try to think about things that make you happy, so your head is full of positive thoughts. Reading a good book in bed will help to settle your thoughts. If you have a bad dream, try drawing it. (25) _____

People are spending a lot of time talking about sad events in the news. (26) _____ It is very unlikely that such events will affect you or your family. It is important that if you are feeling upset about them, you shouldn't keep what's troubling you to yourself. (27) _____ That can help you to understand what is upsetting you, and help those feelings of sadness, anger or confusion to go away.

0)	C

A) Instead, talk to an adult about the issue in the news that is worrying you.

B) Surround yourself with nice things by your bed, so they are the last things you see before you sleep.

~~C) ~~You won't be the only one who feels that way.~~~~

D) This will help you to confront and fight your fear.

E) Doing things that make you happy can help you to feel better.

F) These are major signs that the news report may not be real.

G) It can be a simple act like writing cards for natural-disaster victims.

H) However, upsetting things are on the news because they are rare and do not happen very often.

I) Then try and read a happy one after it.

- You are going to read an article about Oulu, Finland, where people more often use their bicycles during winter than anywhere else in the world. Some words are missing from the text.
- Your task is to write the missing words on the dotted lines (9-16) after the text.
- Use only one word in each gap.
- There is an example (0) at the beginning.

THE WINTER CYCLING CAPITAL OF THE WORLD

Oulu is covered in snow for five months of the year and temperatures (0) _____ drop as low as -30ºC, with just four hours of daylight.

Despite these harsh conditions, 12% of winter journeys are made by bicycle in Oulu. At first sight, the beautiful wintry surroundings look like they have something to (9) _____ with it. But without proper cycling infrastructure, the attraction wouldn't be enough.

The city encourages cycling (10) _____ clearing the paths every day during winter. One of (11) _____ most effective changes is also one of the simplest: clear the cycle paths first and then the roads. Three to four centimetres of fresh snow is no issue for cars, but it might be a problem for cyclists and prevent elderly people from going outside (12) _____ all. The cleared cycle paths also provide access around the city for people (13) _____ use mobility scooters.

One key challenge for winter cycling is safety. The paths (14) _____ well-lit during the dark winter months, and there are 320 underpasses so that children, (15) _____ particular, don't have to cross roads.

The mental and physical health benefits are another reason for the city's cycling encouragement. It wants to (16) _____ sure that all citizens are able to go outside during the winter months.

SEVENTEENTH-CENTURY SHOPPING LIST

Spoons, a (0) _____ (fry) pan and codfish – these items were on a shopping list written 400 years ago, which was (17) _____ (recent) discovered in the attic at Knole, a historic country home in Kent, England.

The archaeology team at Knole discovered the 1633 note during a multi-million-dollar project to restore the house. The team also found two other 17th century letters (18) _____ (near).

Robert Draper wrote the shopping list to Mr. Bilby. The note was (19) _____ (beauty) written, suggesting that Draper was a high-ranking servant. Draper asked Mr. Bilby to send the items to Copt Hall, an estate in Essex.

How did this domestic letter get (20) _____ (hide) in an attic at Knole, which is 36 miles away from Copt Hall? Copt Hall and Knole were united when Frances Cranfield married Richard Sackville in 1637. Frances's father was the (21) _____ (own) of Copt Hall; Sackville had inherited Knole, his family's home. Household records show that domestic items – (22) _____ (include) various papers – were moved from Copt Hall to Knole at the time of the wedding.

Cranfield inherited a number of expensive (23) _____ (paint) and furniture from her father. Draper's letter certainly was not among the (24) _____ (value) items that Cranfield brought to the (25) _____ (marry), but for modern-day historians, it is exceptionally important.

Welcome to the Listening component of the Matura Examination.

The listening material and the instructions are recorded on this CD, and the tasks and instructions are printed in your test booklet.

- There will be three tasks, and every recording will be played twice.
- The tasks will begin with some music, and then you will hear (and you can also read) the instructions to the task.
- This will be followed by a silent period on the CD in order to give you some time to look at the task in your test booklet before hearing the text.
- Then we will play the recording in one piece.
- After another short silent period, we will play the recording for the second time, but now in shorter sections and with breaks between the sections in order to give you enough time to write down your answers.

Please note that the first item in each task (marked with a tick [✓]) is always an example.

The whole test is exactly 30 minutes long.

Good luck!

Task 1

You spent a long weekend in Prague with a friend and stayed in a B&B. On arriving home you realised that you had left your e-book reader in the room. Here's a photo you took of your room:

Write an email of 80-100 words to the landlady, Ms Novak, in which you

- tell her what the problem is, apologise, and ask for her help,
- give her two ideas about where in the room you might have left the reader,
- ask her to send it to you by post and offer to pay for it.

Begin like this:

Dear Ms Novak,

Task 2

You received the following email from your 18-year-old Polish friend, Pavel:

> You know how opinionated my mum is; she holds strong opinions about everything and there is no way to make her change her mind. The other day she started criticising my 16-year-old cousin, who dyed her hair strawberry blond. No doubt it meant, she said, that she was seeking attention, or maybe she had mental issues. and a psychologist should be called in before something even more terrible happens.
>
> You know my girlfriend Dorota. She's a quiet, withdrawn girl, always shy in the company of new people. So I was a bit worried when my mum decided that it was time the family got to know her and that she should be invited to the family celebration of my birthday next weekend. I told Dorota about it and although she looked a bit nervous, I managed to convince her that it would be a relaxed family lunch, nothing to worry about.
>
> I think you'll understand why I was completely shocked when I met her yesterday, and saw that she had dyed her hair blue!!! She explained that she had decided to change something about her appearance to spice things up and now that she had eventually taken the step she felt fantastic, like a new person. If it wasn't for my mother, who she'll meet in a week's time, I would agree that it's just a fun thing to do, a harmless way to look different, BUT…, I really don't want to imagine the moment when I introduce her to my mum.
>
> What do you think? Is there anything I could do to prevent a catastrophe?

Write an email of 100-120 words to Pavel in which you tell him what you think

- of teenagers dying their hair,
- of his mother's opinion,
- of Dorota's explanation,
- he could do in this situation.
